A CHEDA IS LOCAVORE

In keeping with our commitment to short supply chains and our belief in the quality of our regional products, we have resolutely chosen to source our products mainly from passionate craftsmen who love our land.

Winegrowers, market gardeners, fishermen, farmers, pickers, all passionate about their craft and the desire to share it with customers in search of authenticity.

It's up to us to prepare, accommodate, cook and present a coherent cuisine that respects a know-how where gesture and inspiration are nourished by experience and encounters.

Chef Lionel Lebrun, restaurant manager François Rocca Serra and all the staff are delighted to welcome you.

We hope you enjoy your visit.
